

The SIDECAR project: A systematized channel to transfer knowledge in dementia care

Prof. Rabih Chattat

University of Bologna

Online conference, Prague, November 24

European
Commission

Project supported under the KA2
Strategic Partnerships for Higher Education (HE) Ref. 2018-1-IT02-KA203-048402

SIDECAR

SIDECAR

Contents

Introduction

Research

Policy

Psychosocial care in HE

Systematizing knowledge

Conclusion

European Commission

SIDECAR

Introduction

Introduction

Psychosocial care as a first line approach in dementia care

Fragmentation of care provision

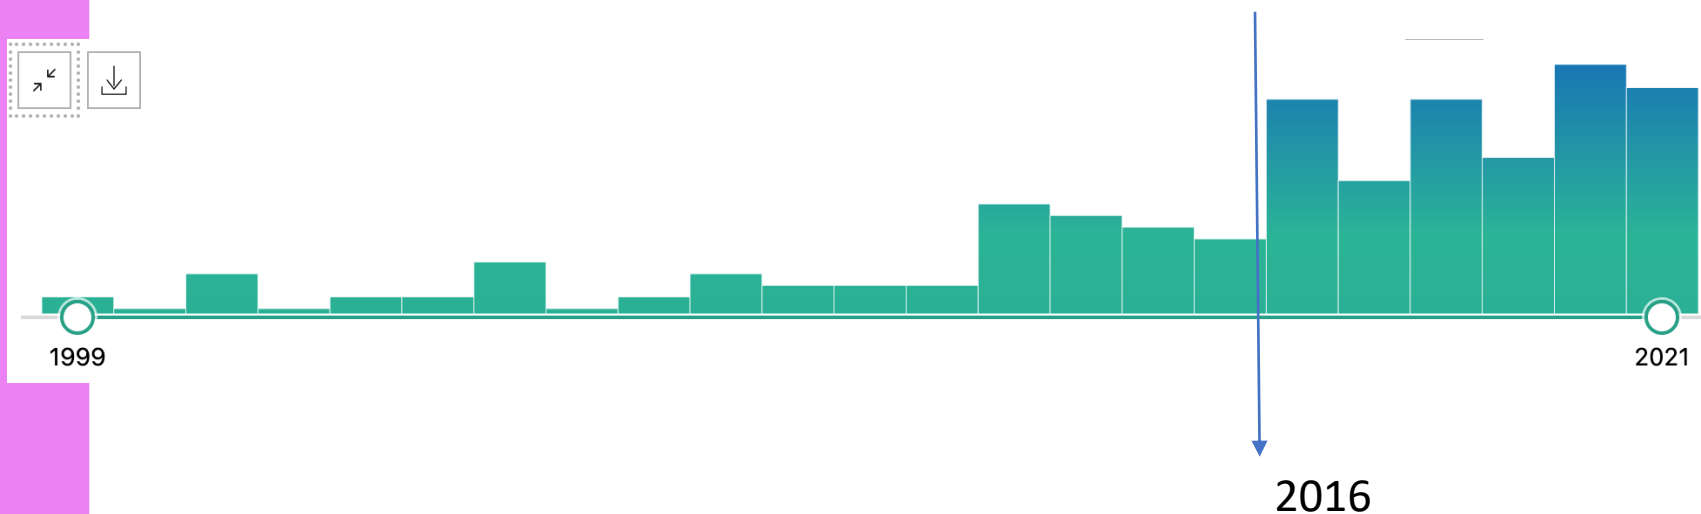

From research to practice

Growing research in psychosocial care in dementia: trend of systematic review

Research

SIDECAR

Research

- Evidence based interventions for
 - People with dementia
 - Informal caregivers
 - Formal caregivers

European Commission

SIDECAR

Policy

- National dementia plan across Europe

European
Commission

Chirico et al., 2021

SIDECAR

Higher Education

Differences across Europe and across Universities

Ottoboni et al., 2021

European Commission

SIDECAR

From research
to practice

Building skills

Systematizing knowledge
transfer

Awareness

Access

European Commission

SIDECAR

Knowledge

- ❖ Disease feature
- ❖ Risk and prevention
- ❖ The experience of the person with dementia
- ❖ The experience of informal caregivers
- ❖ The impact of caring on formal caregivers
- ❖ Ethics in dementia care

European Commission

SIDECAR

The Sidecar project

- Theory, assessment and intervention
- Integrating knowledge into HE Curricula

European Commission

SIDECAR

Process

- Collaborative work of researcher:
INTERDEM NETWORK

European Commission

SIDECAR

Process

- Modules
- Topics
- Content
- Materials

European Commission

SIDECAR

Moving forward

- Dissemination
- Updating
- Adoption

European Commission

SIDECAR

Thanks for your attention

European Commission